Step 2 – Getting Started

- Insert your email address into the 1st box. Your email address can be your work email, a private email etc.
 - Please keep in mind, this login information will stay with you. If you need to reset your password, the link to resetting will be sent to the email address that you use.
- Choose a suitable Username this will appear when you post your blog(s).
- Choose a secure Password that is not hackable. It is advisable not to use <Name123> or similar
- Press the Continue button.

- Below you will see examples of the previous screen, with a private email address, username and password.
- There is the option to view your password
 - This is available by clicking on the 'Eye' Icon

This screenshot shows the same registration form as above, but with example data entered. The 'Your email address' field contains 'hotmail.com'. The 'Choose a username' field is empty. The 'Choose a password' field contains a series of dots, and the eye icon is visible, indicating the password is hidden. The 'Continue' button is still present at the bottom of the form. The rest of the page layout, including the header and sub-headings, remains the same.

Step 3 - Profile

- Once you have created your login details, you have the option to populate your profile with more information.
- On the screen below you can:
 - Add an image
 - Add your first name or surname
 - Add a description of yourself
- You should also review the following tabs on the left-hand side of your screen & amend where necessary to suit you:
 - Account Settings
 - Security
 - Privacy
 - Notification Settings

Got it!

Step 4 – Writing your blog

- You may have already written a piece in Word and want to transfer it to your Aging Issues Profile. This is possible!
- On your profile you will see in the top right-hand corner of your screen the word ‘Write’
- Click on this tab and it will take you to the next screen where you can start to write your blog or copy & paste from word.

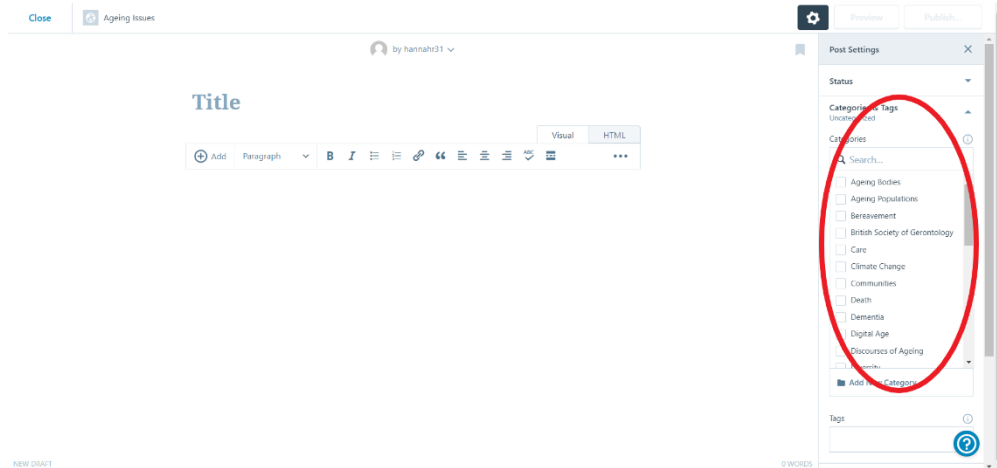

- The following screen displays where you will write or copy & paste your blog.
- You can format your piece by using the different icons

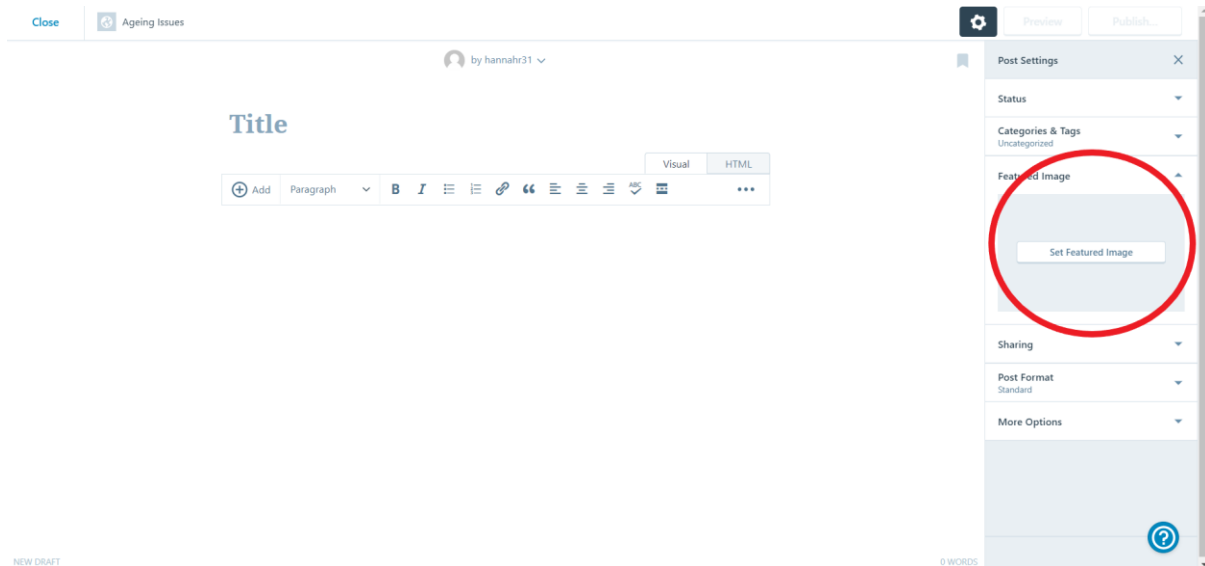

Step 4a – Selecting Categories for your Blog

- There are many categories/keywords which you as an author can select and add to your blog.
- These are available under the ‘Categories Tags’
- You can select as many as you want. Readers can also choose to read articles that are under specific tags that they may solely be interested in.

Step 4b – Feature Image

- You can add an image to your featured blog.

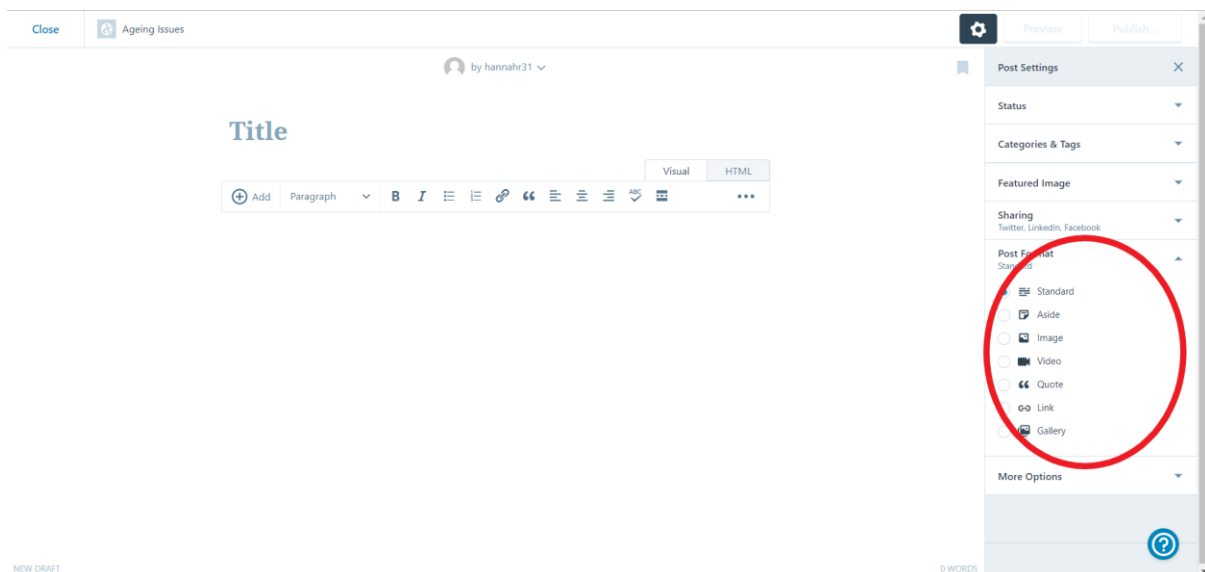

Step 4c – Connect to Social Media

- If you use social media platforms, you can connect your blog prior to publishing to your social media platforms (Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn etc.)
- Your blog can be connected via the 'Sharing' tab and selecting the different options.

Step 4d – Blog Style

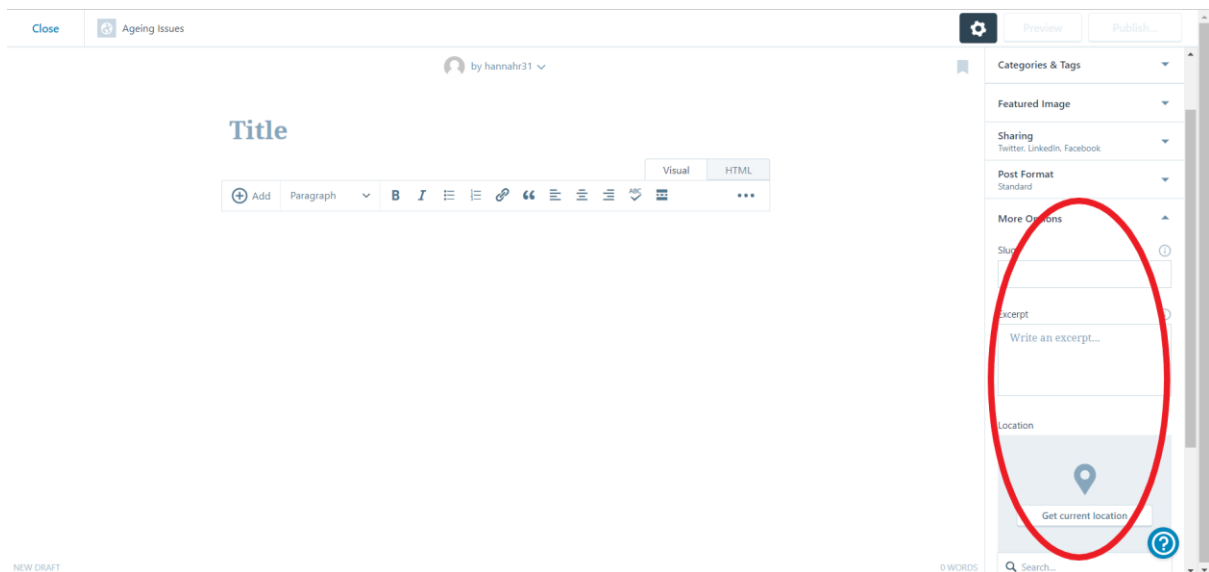

- You can choose a variety of styles for your blog posting(s).
- These options can be found under the 'Post Format' tab

Step 4e – More Options

- The final tab in this section provides you with several other options including:
 - Adding an Excerpt
 - Adding location
 - Enable comments
 - Enable pingbacks & trackbacks

This is entirely up to you whether you want to add these additional elements to your post.

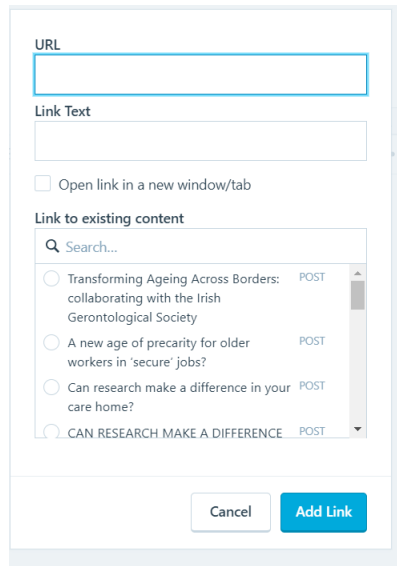

Step 4f – Adding a Web Link

- You may want to add a website or highlight a word or sentence in your blog to a specific website.
- You can do this as you write or when you are going through the final edits
- Click on the ‘Paperclip’ icon and follow

- A separate box will appear below (see below) and you can connect to an existing blog OR a website
- For the purpose of this exercise you will see in the 2nd box a ‘connection’ to an existing blog, under the ‘Link to existing content’ options
- You can click on the box ‘Open link in a new window/tab’ this will open a new window for the reader
- Copy & Paste the weblink into the URL Box
- Link Text allows you to select or type a word or series of words which will ‘connect’ to the URL that you have selected.
- When you have finished, Click the ‘Add Link’ button

Step 4g – Publishing your Blog

- When you are ready to publish your blog you go to the right-hand side of the screen and select 'Status' <Red Circle>
- Prior to publishing, please ensure you have proof read your piece and you have all the necessary information you would like to have included.
- There are different options available when publishing your blog and these can be selected from the drop-down options.
